

Print these fun family-oriented questions and sit down with your loved ones to hear their responses. Brace yourself; their response might surprise you – so don't forget your pen and paper!

Family Questions

- Do you have a family legend or story that has been passed down for generations?
- What traditions do you look forward to at family get-togethers?
- What is unique about your family background or ethnicity?
- How did your ancestors change your life?
- Do you have any advice for future generations?
- What is the most important thing you learned from your parents?
- When was the best time in your life and why was it great?
- What are you most proud of about your family?
- How do you want to be remembered?
- What is your favorite thing about being part of your family?

My Family

- What quirky personality traits run in your family?
- What physical characteristics run in your family?
- What is/was your favorite activity to do with your mother or father?
- How would your family spend a typical day together?
- How would your mother or father punish or reward you as a child?
- What things did you do with your brothers and sisters when you were growing up?
- How have your brothers and sisters influenced your life?

Fun Family Questions

- Who is the biggest troublemaker in your family?
- Who in your family would you want to be stranded on a desert island with?
- Which family member do you think could be famous?
- Who do you most want to be like in your family?
- Who has the best sense of humour in your family?

World Questions

- What do you think was the biggest problem facing the world when you were growing up?
- What do you think is the biggest problem facing the world today?
- What do you think are the discoveries and inventions that changed your life?
- What do you think the world will be like for your family's future generations in 100 years?
- What is your wish for the future generations of your family?